Recovering from disaster through occupation dont stop being who you are because of what has happened. Strength in the face of adversity. Winter cold warm OT thoughts and ACTION. Blessings to all those that suffer from human disaster and other natural disasters around the world, may peace return to your hearts, muchos besos! We occupied in life, life Disasters show us how our occupation with life is taken for granted so that we must become more occupied in designing and building + advocating in/with life. The earth moves we come together. Flous que nascem do chai do desato sai flous poites! Chile, ertamos com voces! En espana os abyamos a todos ls terapelias ocupacionales y a todos la bbiaelos de chile para ave prto fuerdan recuperarse de los davos ocastoiados por el terremoto much saud y amor. Admiro tu perseverancia y tu fe. A plaudimos programas como este que dan su apoyo a las Chilenos! Arriba Chile! Que con la fuerzia de todos superaremos esto y mucho mas! Arriba Chile! Furerza Chile! Grande Chile! Fuerza Chile!! Arriba! Desde aregentino todos los meiatadesos para velver & levantar un pais ta hesmoso corlo chile!! Les mano mucha fuerza y animo! Ich bewundere wie schnell chile wieder auf die beine kommt und id goffe dass alle menschen, die leid er fagren gaben unterstukuug lekommen!

Messages from occupational therapists to their colleagues affected by the earthquake and Tsunami in Chile 2010, in the context of the XV World Congress of Occupational Therapist.
